

Class of '88 Update

Highlights from the past year.

Johnny Mac got married. A bunch of us made the wedding. An awesome reception made up for having to endure the two and one half hour church ceremony done mostly in Greek. John and his wife Tanya are living in East New York. John is Chief Council for the NY/NJ PBA, he gave me a little Card that identifies me as a "safe and courteous driver who supports the PBA" it's probably saved me from about 3 or 4 speeding tickets in the past 2 years.

Rob Erman, George Darcy, Matt Weinman and me went down to Myrtle Beach in October for a week of golf. We all left the wives and kids home and rekindled the bond that we had felt since our college days. Hopefully we could do it again within the next 10 years.

Neal Quinter is living like a rock star down in Ft Lauderdale. He invites anyone visiting Florida to look him up. Jason Miller moved out of the city and into Jersey, thereby admitting that he too recognizes that somehow middle-aged is upon him.

Sadly I'm not in touch w/ Chuck, Peter, Jeff or John. But I'd figure that like me they think back fondly on days of wiffle ball, nights of pool parties and some of the best years of our lives where lifelong friendships were made and are renewed after years of separation as comfortably as slipping into a comfortable pair of well worn jeans.
